

Things start getting tougher when she decides to do a little mountain climbing and he's game—at least, so far.

Suddenly all girl . . . she decides she needs a strong helping arm and Mark is gallantry personified.

On a day off from her new pic "The Road West" with Kirk Douglas, Robert Mitchum and Richard Widmark no less . . . Sally wanders back to the Screen Gems lot and starts off calmly just imitating Chaplin with Mark.

A Date WITH SALLY!

Any fellow who dates vivacious Sally Field ought to take his Wheaties the night before . . . so says Mark Slade!

◀ She liked it! More please . . . He's beginning to weary just a bit. Mark has been in loads of TV shows and is always great in any role.

▶ Well what do you know . . . they're plumb tuckered out! But it was a wonderful afternoon for both of them.
